Jesus said: "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish. No one can take them out of my hand. My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all, and no one can take them out of the Father's hand. The Father and I are one." John 10:27-30

From Father McCabe

The Easter Season is filled with God's divine life as we acknowledge and praise Jesus Christ as the Source of all life and love, human and divine. We experience the outpouring of God's divine life – sanctifying grace – through Holy Mother Church and her Sacraments bestowed upon her by her divine Son, Jesus Christ. Mary, the Mother of Jesus Christ, is the distributor of these divine graces and he calls us to cooperate with her to receive them.

"As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and remain in his love...Love one another as I love you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you." Jn 15:9-14 God loves us unconditionally, but we need to love God in return to be saved, and that is what is meant by remaining in God's love – staying in the state of grace.

Mary followed Christ Jesus perfectly and loves God above all things, and thus loves God appropriately within all things, especially his divine family and sacred gifts, and our family of faith, and our own family. As followers of Christ, we strive to do the same that Mary did, for she followed Christ perfectly.

Of course, Jesus perfectly lived God's Fourth Commandment: "Honor your Father and your Mother", by laying down his life for us on the cross at the bidding of his Heavenly Father; to win God's sanctifying grace poured out to us through the power of the Holy Spirit and Holy Mother Church.

Jesus also perfectly honored his mother, Mary, by crowning her Queen of Heaven and Earth, as revealed to us in the Bible, The Book of Revelation, chapter 12: 1 – 17. This apocalyptic genre is difficult to understand, because the past and the future are often condensed into one present image, such as the following:

"A great sign appeared in the sky, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. She was with child and wailed aloud in pain as she labored to give birth. Then another sign appeared in the sky; it was a huge red dragon...[that] stood before the woman about to give birth, to devour her child when she gave birth... a male child, destined to rule all the nations with an iron rod." Rev. 12:1-5a

This refers to Mary, the Queen of Heaven and Earth, and Jesus Christ, God's divine Son. Sacred Scripture then speaks of a great spiritual battle between God's angels, led by St. Michael, and the fallen angels, led by Satan. God wins the battle and casts Satan upon the earth while the Son is snatched up into heaven, and his Mother Mary is given "two wings of a great eagle, so that she could fly to her place in the de- sert..." where she was taken care of for 3.5 years.

Jubilee Year 2025: Pilgrims of Hope

"Then the dragon became angry with the woman and went off to wage war against the rest of her offspring, those who keep God's commandments and bear witness to Jesus." Rev. 12:17. No wonder it can be very challenging to live the Catholic faith in the world, since God reveals to us from the Bible that the Devil is at war with us – the children of Mary, "her offspring" – who strive to live as Catholic Christian disciples. Fortunately, we are on the winning team!

During Mother's Day, and really every day, we should honor our mothers by sharing with them God's love and gratitude. And during this month of May, the Month of Mary, let us honor her, the Queen of Heaven and Earth, in a special way by celebrating at the Holy Trinity Church, the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima, Tuesday, May 13, 7:30AM Rosary, 8:00AM Holy Mass.

Peace in the Crucified and Risen Lord Jesus Christ,
Fr. Thomas McCabe

+ I thank all those helping with fundraisers. I am sorry for not being as clear as I want about them. Last year we had a new fundraiser, the Parish Garage sale, which was divided between the Eucharistic Pilgrimage opportunities and Faith Formation. The Eucharistic Pilgrimage falls under the accounting category of Youth and Family Ministry, since it is optional for youth and families. Whereas the Faith Formation funds are essential for necessary items for those who wish to receive the sacraments. We keep these two accounts separate since the Faith Formation account goes to those things that are necessary. The Youth and Family Ministry account was established when we began the Mardi Gras fundraiser which would help support Cana Family Institute program, Vacation Bible Camp, NET Retreat - which are all optional opportunities, and can be reduced. The Faith Formation account is for necessary items in Faith Formation classes like workbooks, Bibles, general supplies, Confirmation Retreat, Confirmation Prep Night/Pizza party, First Communion cards/ gifts, all of which are necessary items. The Finance Council has recommended that I put together a fundraising form to be more clear about fundraisers. Thank you for your generosity and patience while we clarify these new opportunities to support and grow in our faith.

+ Peace in the Risen Christ, Fr. Thomas McCabe +

Catholic Home Mission Collection, May 17/18: What is a "Home Mission" Diocese? Home mission dioceses are those Catholic dioceses in the United States, its territories, and former territories that cannot provide basic pastoral services without outside help. Basic pastoral services include Mass, the sacraments, religious education, and ministry training for priests, deacons, religious sisters, and lay people. Nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are considered home mission dioceses. Please prayerfully consider donating to this collection.
