"After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them. The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five. He said, 'Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.'" cf. Mt. 25:14-30

From Father McCabe

Jesus is the “Messiah,” a word in Hebrew that means “anointed one,” which is translated as “Christ” in the Greek language. Jesus is the “Christ” for he was anointed by the Holy Spirit at his Baptism, not because he needed baptism to remove original sin, but rather to make the waters of baptism holy for us. We see another dimension of God’s humility, for he used an imperfect man, John the Baptist, so that all his disciples would follow him through the waters of baptism by the hands of an imperfect man, the priest or other authentic minister who baptizes using the correct formula, “I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

When we celebrate the Holy Mass, the Holy Eucharist, we celebrate Jesus as the King of kings, Perfect priest and offering, and Perfect prophet of God Almighty, in whom we have been baptized. We share in those three roles when we devoutly live our Catholic faith. Jesus works through us to bring about the forgiveness of venial sins (and mortal sins in the confessional) at Holy Mass to reorder our lives back to God’s glory, which unites us more and more to God and one another through the saving truth and grace of Jesus Christ, fully found in the Holy Eucharist.

The very word “Eucharist” comes from the Greek word meaning “thanksgiving,” and we who are growing in faith grow in giving “thanks to God.” By receiving Jesus in his word and sacraments with grateful, worthy and humble hearts, God is bringing to perfection his uniting and purifying love within our soul and the souls of our brothers and sisters in Christ.

In today’s gospel of St. Matthew, we read how Jesus Christ gave to his servants some talents “each according to his ability.” The servant who received five talents was industrious and when the Master “came back and settled accounts with them,” was able to say, ‘Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.’ His master said to him, ‘Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share you master’s joy.’”

The servant who received two talents invested and made two more and had the same conversation. But the servant who received one talent, and buried it, said “Master, I knew you were a demanding person, harvesting where you did not plant and gathering where you did not scatter; so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground. Here it is back.” His master said, “You wicked, lazy servant! .... Should you not then have put my money in the bank so that I could get it back with interest on my return? Now then! Take the talent from him and give it to the one with ten. For to everyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away. And throw this useless servant into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.” Cf. Mt. 25:14-30.

What is the one talent that we all receive from God? It is the coin of “free will” on one side of the coin, and “faith” on the other side, whereby we can invest in the Lord’s mission by choosing to follow Jesus Christ, divine head of the Catholic Church, or not. The more we share our “faith,” the more freedom (free will) we have to love God and our neighbor which makes us wealthy in God’s plan of salvation.

By offering up our works of faith, hope and love to God through and with Jesus Christ and his priest at Sunday Mass, we and our works are purified and we grow rich! For this reason we are so thankful!

I look forward to celebrating Holy Mass, the Holy Eucharist, with you and your family, especially on Sundays and other holy days of obligation. Thanksgiving Day is a National Holiday, and not a holy day of obligation, but I will celebrate Holy Mass at St. Columbkil, Thur., Nov. 23, 7:45AM. (No Adoration or Confession scheduled that day.)

I also invite you to an Ecumenical Thanksgiving Prayer Service with St. Luke Lutheran Church beginning at 7:00PM on the evening before, Wed. Nov. 22 at Holy Trinity. We will be collecting nonperishable food items and a monetary collection for the Zumbrota Food shelf that evening.

It is through Jesus Christ, our Eucharistic Lord, that we receive the supernatural gift of God’s saving grace, and the natural gifts of good food, health, family and friends which makes our journey to heaven a time of great thanksgiving. Happy Thanksgiving to all!

Peace in Christ, Fr. Thomas McCabe

“You are an empty chalice. Every morning you have to be filled. Every morning you offer yourself, your day, your being, and consecrate yourself as a sacrifice to make up what is wanting in the Passion of Christ (cf Col 1:24). I eat Christ in the morning, and I am eaten up myself through the day.” (Servant of God (+1984) Catherine de Hueck Doherty (continued next week).

Honoring
Father Thomas McCabe
Sponsored by CCW

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Thank you for the many gifts of cards, prayers, and food that has made this past Priest Appreciation weekend so uplifting. I truly love sharing in the ordained priesthood of Jesus Christ for the glory of God and the salvation of souls. I enjoy serving here and I hope to become more organized with your generous help. I am happy with all our volunteers who continue to grow in their ministries and realize the rewards that God gives to his faithful servants. I want to especially thank the Council of Catholic Women (CCW) of both Holy Trinity and St. Columbkil churches for the reception they provided after the Mass on Saturday and Sunday. I thank the Catholic Daughters of America at St. Mary church for their support as well.

As we continue to grow in our sense of mission, let us continue to pray for the success of Archbishop Bernard Hebda's Pastoral Synodal process as we implement the results and resolutions of our synodal journey. As I have written about and communicated through email, and offered many small group discussions, the three year long "Synod" process means that we are on the "same" (Gk. syn) "path" (Gk. odo) by following Jesus Christ on his mission of life and salvation with Archbishop Hebda, the head of the St. Paul and Minneapolis Archdiocese, and his faithful priests and deacons.

The next step in this "synodal journey" is for those who have been trained as leaders or co-leaders in small group evangelical cells to organize and begin sometime in Lent. These new "Parish Evangelization Cells" will be part of every parish that responds to the Archbishop's request. Please pray for those who will say "Yes" to this great opportunity to join a small group to welcome/evangelize/share the Gospel, the Good News of Jesus Christ which is truly a gift to all the human family.

Peace in Christ, Fr. Thomas McCabe
