A great sign appeared in the sky, a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. She was with child... Then another sign...; it was a huge red dragon... to devour the child when she gave birth. She gave birth to a son, a male child, destined to rule all the nations with an iron rod. Her child was caught up to God and his throne. The woman herself fled into the desert where she had a place prepared by God. Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say: "Now have salvation and power come, and the Kingdom of our God and the authority of his Anointed One..." The dragon became angry with the woman and went off to wage war against the rest of her offspring, those who keep God's commandments and bear witness to Jesus. Revelation 12:1-17

From Father McCabe

Why do things happen the way they do? Was I predestined to be here? Is there such a thing as “predestination”? Predestination of people and events is a profound mystery of our Catholic Christian faith.

We believe that God sees and knows all, and to the extent that we share in his life we begin to increase our knowledge, even fore-knowledge, but never reach God’s perfect knowledge. Only God knows all the tendencies of each person, their options, and consequences of their choices, and thus the ultimate outcome of our personal and general history. Predestination is caught up in cause and effect, the nature of God’s creation and his plan of salvation.

For example, if I eat well and exercise, I will be healthier than if I do not, which is a predictable outcome. It works on a spiritual level too, because if I am baptized and consistently pray daily, worship weekly, fast, tithe, evangelize and study the Catholic Christian faith, I will grow spiritually; and if I stay in God’s sanctifying grace as a sign of my true love for God, as Jesus said, “Remain in my love,” (Cf. Jn. 15:8-10) then I will produce much fruit and have a higher place in heaven than if I did not freely choose to do these things. I have been predestined by God for a place in heaven, but will I fully attain it? Only God knows.

As the Catechism of the Catholic Church states, no one is predestined to hell, but it is up to us to choose to follow Jesus Christ into heaven. (CCC 1005-1009) Only one human person always chose to say “Yes” to God perfectly, and thus fulfilled her life perfectly – the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Thus, we celebrate as a solemn feast the Assumption of Mary Body and Soul into Heaven, August 15, by recalling how Mary’s predestination is the destination of all who follow the faith of her divine Son, Jesus Christ, the divine head of the Catholic Church, with the help of Mary’s intercessory prayer.

Although Mary’s Assumption was held by early Christians, it was November 1, 1950 that Pope Pius XII defined and promulgated this doctrine as a dogma which must be held by every Catholic – to remain in full communion – as a central and thus pivotal doctrine of divine faith. We believe this dogma because God has revealed it as such, for the purpose of having us reflect on the destiny to which God calls each person loved and redeemed by Christ. Our souls and our bodies are created to be temples of the Holy Spirit through God’s grace (in our case, beginning with our baptism), just as Mary’s was and is perfectly so in the fullness of heaven.

From the apostolic constitution Munificentissimus Deus by Pope Pius XII we read: “In their homilies and sermons on this feast the fathers and great doctors [of the Church] spoke of the assumption of the Mother of God as something already familiar and accepted by the faithful... Scripture portrays the loving Mother of God, ...as most intimately united with her divine Son, and always sharing in this destiny...Hence, the august Mother of God, mysteriously united from all eternity with Jesus Christ in one and the same decree of predestination, immaculate in her conception, a virgin inviolate in her divine motherhood, the whole-hearted companion of the divine Redeemer who won complete victory over sin and its consequences, gained at last the supreme crown of her privileges - to be preserved immune from the corruption of the tomb, and like her Son, when death had been conquered, to be carried up body and soul to the exalted glory of heaven, there to sit in splendor at the right hand of her Son, the immortal King of the ages.”

Praise God we have such a wonderful Savior in Christ Jesus and a glorious Mother to intercede to him for us! With God’s grace, let us fully choose to follow Jesus and his Mother into our eternal destiny – heaven.

The Solemnity of the Assumption of Mary is on a Tuesday this year and thereby is a holy day of obligation, which means as Catholics in the United States we are required to attend Mass, except in cases of emergencies or other moral impossibilities (e.g., having a surgery that day). The Vigil Mass will be Monday, August 14, 8:15 PM at St. Mary. Adoration will start on that Monday at 6:30 PM, but end at 7:50 PM so that our musician and cantors can prepare for the Vigil Mass at 8:15 PM. The Solemnity of the Assumption will be celebrated on Tuesday, August 15, 8:00 AM at Holy Trinity.

I encourage all to take the opportunity to go to confession during the normal times over the weekend to make it an especially fruitful celebration of our Holy Mary’s special feast day, and then offer yourselves to God in Christ’s sacrifice of the Mass for your personal intentions.

Peace in the Risen Lord Jesus Christ, through the Blessed Virgin Mary,

Fr. Thomas McCabe
