When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim. Acts of the Apostles 2:1-4.

From Father McCabe

The following is a reflection on the New Testament Pentecost event from an ancient author of the 6th century.

“The disciples spoke in the language of every nation. At Pentecost God chose this means to indicate the presence of the Holy Spirit: whoever had received the Spirit spoke in every kind of tongue. We must realize, dear brothers [and sisters], that this is the same Holy Spirit by whom love is poured out in our hearts. It was love that was to bring the Church of God together all over the world. And as individual men who received the Holy Spirit in those days could speak in all kinds of tongues, so today the Church, united by the Holy Spirit, speaks in the language of every people.

“Therefore, if somebody should say to one of us, ‘You have received the Holy Spirit, why do you not speak in the tongues of all men?’ his reply should be, ‘I do indeed speak in the tongues of all men, because I belong to the body of Christ, that is, the Church, and she speaks all languages. What else did the presence of the Holy Spirit indicate at Pentecost, except that God’s Church was to speak in the language of every people?’

“This was the way in which the Lord’s promise was fulfilled: No one put new wine into old wineskins. New wine is put into fresh skins, and so both are preserved. So when the disciples were heard speaking in all kinds of languages, some people were not far wrong in saying: They have been drinking too much new wine. The truth is that the disciple had now become fresh wineskins, renewed and made holy by grace. The fervor brimmed over, and they spoke in manifold tongues. By the spectacular miracle they became a sign of the Catholic Church, which embraces the language of every nation.

“Keep this feast, then, as members of the one body of Christ. It will be no empty festival for you if you really live what you are celebrating. For you are the members of that Church which the Lord acknowledges as his own, being himself acknowledged by her, that same Church which he fills with the Holy Spirit as she spreads through the world. He is like a bridegroom who never loses sight of his own bride; no one could ever deceive him by substituting some other woman.

“To you men of all nations, then, who make up the Church of Christ, you, the bride of Christ – to all of you the Apostles addresses these words: Bear with one another in love; do all you can to preserve the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. Notice that when Paul urges us to bear with one another, he bases his argument on love, and when he speaks of our hope of unity, he emphasizes the bond of peace. This Church is the house of God, built up of living stones, whose master is almighty God. It is his delight to dwell here. Take care, then, that he never has the sorrow of seeing it undermined by schism and collapsing in ruins.”

A description in paragraph #1303 of the Catechism of the Catholic Church of the effects of Confirmation on those who receive it and cultivate this sacred gift of the Holy Spirit:

“...Confirmation brings an increase and deepening of baptismal grace:

-it roots us more deeply in the divine filiation which makes us cry, “Abba! Father!”;

-it unites us more firmly to Christ;

-it increases the gifts of the Holy Spirit in us;

-it renders our bond with the Church more perfect;

-it gives us a special strength of the Holy Spirit to spread and defend the faith by word and action as true witnesses of Christ, to confess the name of Christ boldly, and never to be ashamed of the Cross:

“Recall then that you have received the spiritual seal, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of right judgement and courage, the spirit of knowledge and reverence, the spirit of holy fear in God’s presence. Guard what you have received. God the Father has marked you with his sign; Christ the Lord has confirmed you and has placed his pledge, the Spirit in your hearts.” St. Ambrose, Bishop of Milan, Italy, (c.340-397 A.D.)

Peace in the Risen Christ and the Holy Spirit,

Fr. Thomas McCabe

National Eucharistic Pilgrimage Begins Pentecost Sunday! There are four processions beginning today (Pentecost Sunday) at different locations around the country. We are part of the Marian Route. Details and dates and locations of processions can be found at archspm.org/Eucharistic-pilgrimage. We will have a short outdoor Eucharistic Procession on the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, Sunday, June 2 immediately following the 10:30AM Mass at St. Columbkille.

National Eucharistic Procession opportunities: Friday, May 31, 8:00 AM Mass, Feast of the Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary at Holy Trinity Church. Then, Eucharistic Adoration at St. Paul Church, Zumbrota, starting at 10:30 AM, with Eucharistic Procession to St. Michael, Pine Island, starting at around 11:00 AM. (My plan: Immediately after the 8:00 AM Mass, I am driving to St. Michael, Pine Island, and Greg Majerus is going to follow me in his car and bring me to St. Paul, Zumbrota, as soon as I find a parking spot. Thus, my car will be waiting for me at St. Michael after the procession - but it will be busy so be prepared!)

Parish Office is Closed Monday, May 27, Memorial Day. The Office will reopen on Wed., May 29 from 10:00AM-2:00PM. Bulletin articles are due by Wednesday by 12Noon.

Holy Trinity Confirmation 2024

The Welcome Mass was held at St. Columbkille for the Newly Confirmed. A special thank you to all who helped make the Confirmation Welcome Mass and Reception a lovely event: the eighth grade families for providing and serving refreshments, CCW for organizing and for all those who helped decorate the Church. A special thank you to Taylor Dowden and Fr. McCabe for their teaching and spiritual guidance.
