“Brothers and sisters: Every high priest is taken from among men and made their representative before God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal patiently with the ignorant and erring, for he himself is beset by weakness and so, for this reason, must make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honor upon himself but only when called by God, just as Aaron was.” —Hebrews, 5:1-4

From Father McCabe

I am blessed to have many faithful Catholics supporting and praying for me on my faith journey as an ordained priest. Many past and present parishioners have shared their joys, sorrows and challenges with me with confidence and candor that allows me to grow as a shepherd for Christ and his people.

Thank you, and thanks to all those who celebrated with me this past Saturday and Sunday: Clergy Appreciation Month. I thank those who have given me inspirational cards, gifts, and prayers. You are in my prayers and sacrifices.

In today's second reading from the Letter to the Hebrews we read: "Every high priest is taken from among men and made their representative before God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal patiently with the ignorant and erring, for he himself is beset by weakness and so, for this reason, must make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people." Hb. 5:1-3.

I can relate to the fact that I am beset with many "weaknesses", and so I need Jesus Christ and his power to enlighten and forgive my "ignorant and erring" ways. I go to confession monthly (as recommended by our bishops) and I enjoy sharing God's divine mercy with others, especially in the Sacrament of Confession.

In today's Gospel we read how the blind man Bartimaeus cried out to Jesus, and some tried to stop him. But he persisted until Jesus called him to himself through his disciples. Bartimaeus: "threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus who asked, 'What do you want me to do for you?' The blind man replied to him, 'Master, I want to see.' Jesus told him, 'Go your way; your faith has saved you.' Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way."

That should be our prayer, too: "Master, I want to see", for when Jesus Christ enlightens our blind spots – our "ignorant and erring" ways – we can deepen our faith and follow Jesus more closely like Bartimaeus.

Sometimes people are afraid to know the truth, because they will have to change their ways or grow in charity, but we should hear the truth, and be like those in today's Gospel that say to the blind Bartimaeus, "Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you." This is a summary of our mission as disciples of Jesus Christ and his Catholic Church.

On this World Mission Sunday, let us rejoice together that Jesus Christ has enlightened and forgiven us through the Sacrament of Baptism, and continues to do so through his Gospel and the other sacraments, especially when we make a good confession. Even venial sins can be forgiven in the worthy reception of Holy Communion when we truly repent of them.

Let us rejoice that our Archdiocesan Mission in San Felix, Venezuela, is celebrating its 50th anniversary of bringing Jesus Christ and his seven sacraments to the approximately 60,000 Catholics living there. This partnership has created many bonds of family and friendship, and I was honored to have served among them for about four years, 2008-2011.

The economic hardship afflicting many people in that country, except for the wealthy, is exacerbated by the COVID -19 epidemic and the socialist government that has too many blind spots to enumerate. Let us pray for great enlightenment, a great illumination of conscience and outpouring of charity from God that all of us might take courage and follow Jesus Christ in his Catholic Church more closely.

Peace in the Sacred Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary,
Fr. Thomas McCabe

THE YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH PRAYER

To you, O blessed Joseph

To you, O blessed Joseph, do we come in our afflictions, and having implored the help of your most holy Spouse, we confidently invoke your patronage also. Through that charity which bound you to the Immaculate Virgin Mother of God and through the paternal love with which you embraced the Child Jesus, we humbly beg you graciously to regard the inheritance which Jesus Christ has purchased by His Blood, and with your power and strength to aid us in our necessities.

O most watchful guardian of the Holy Family, defend the chosen children of Jesus Christ; O most loving father, ward off from us every contagion of error and corrupting influence; O our most mighty protector, be kind to us and from heaven assist us in our struggle with the power of darkness.

As once you rescued the Child Jesus from deadly peril, so now protect God's Holy Church from the snares of the enemy and from all adversity; shield, too, each one of us by your constant protection, so that, supported by your example and your aid, we may be able to live piously, to die in holiness, and to obtain eternal happiness in heaven. Amen.

*The official prayer of the Year of St. Joseph (12/8/20-12/8/21)—To you, O blessed Joseph (Ad te, beate Ioseph)—was composed by Pope Leo XIII in his 1889 encyclical, Quamquam Pluries. The Holy Father asked that it be added to the end of the Rosary especially during October, the month of the Holy Rosary. This prayer is enriched with a partial indulgence. (Source: USCCB)*

Dear Friends,
Needy families and individuals in our communities go without essential medical care every day due to a variety of factors, including lack of transportation. While all of us are susceptible to hard times, low-income families and the elderly are at the most risk, and they make up the largest number of clients we serve.

Not only is our program looking to increase our volunteer base, but we are also always looking for families and individuals who can benefit from our program. We need people that are looking to donate their time and energy to become the HART of their community!

Together we will be able to help many of these families and individuals not only to meet essential daily needs, but to work toward a brighter future. Our volunteers say they feel rewarded many times over for the help they provide in making a difference in the lives of others. Volunteers enjoy the freedom and flexibility to choose their own schedule while being reimbursed at the current IRS mileage rate.

If you have any questions please call us at 866-623-7505, option 2, or visit our website at www.threeriverscap.org. Thank you for looking out for your community members!

Sincerely,
Dianne Ford, HART Volunteer Transportation Program Manager
