From Father McCabe

Which commandment in the law is the greatest?
The scholar who asked Jesus this question is like you and I: we want to know the most important thing in life, so that we can love by doing the most important thing in life.
The most important thing in life is to love God.

How? Jesus answered: With all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind. Jesus said this is the greatest, and we fulfill this by living the Ten Commandments and deeper still, the beatitudes, for Jesus lived God’s commandments and the beatitudes perfectly, and so he is Blessed in every way.
But Jesus continues and said, “The second is like it, love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments.” We need both these commandments, just like we depend upon God the Father and the Blessed Mother Mary for Jesus in our life, just like we depend upon our father and mother to bring us into life.
The greatest commandment is to love God above all things, because God is the source of all true love, and the source of love for divine truth that leads to perfect happiness in heaven.
When we know how to follow God’s Ten Commandments and deepen our life in the beatitudes, then we know how to love our neighbor as ourselves, because we do not exist on our own, but come from the communion of our Mom and Dad, and they come from their mom and dad, your grandma and grandpa; and somewhere down the family line someone encountered the Crucified and Risen Christ and taught you about God who lives in a divine community of eternal life, love and wisdom: Father, Son and Holy Spirit, the Holy Trinity of divine person.
Through our baptism into Jesus Christ, we begin the journey of living a life that is directed toward heaven by the Holy Spirit working through the Church. We get a taste of that journey by praying every day, worshiping God at Mass on the weekends, studying our faith, serving and sharing our faith with others.
When we do these things, we open ourselves further to God’s love and then we can love God and others more wisely, more faithfully.
I look forward to our All Saints Day gathering when our 5th and 6th grade students, with the help of their parents and catechists and others, share their love of God and his Saints. Each student represents a Saint of God who grew in loving God above all things, and their neighbor as themselves.
One of the students a couple years ago, who represented St. Luke, shared with me something I never knew about St. Luke. I knew he was an Evangelist who was inspired by God to write the Gospel of Luke and the Acts of the Apostles – which tells us about the early development of the Church. Together these two works make up about 27% of the New Testament. I knew that Saint Luke was an educated physician, but this student had read that he helped others medically without pay and showed his love of God above all by giving his life as a martyr in Greece for our faith, instead of giving in to the errors and sins of the world.
That inspired me to read more about St. Luke and how the Holy Spirit had worked through him. I learned that he helped St. Paul in his ministry when things were going well, as well as when he was imprisoned and suffering, when everyone else abandoned St. Paul. St. Luke showed true and abiding love for this other great evangelist and cared for St. Paul when he suffered being stoned and beaten for proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

I hope today we remember the greatest thing, to Love God with all our heart, all our soul and all our mind, and our neighbor as our self, just as Jesus did perfectly, and his saints followed to the best of their abilities. It is only by following Jesus Christ with this radical love that we will bring peace to the world around us and within us.

I want to encourage people to continue praying the Rosary every day, especially for the end to abortion in Minnesota, but also for those who struggle in the practice of their Catholic faith. When we have a growing trust in God, even as we offer up to God our crosses, we are able to love him more deeply and come to live more like Mary and Joseph, with Jesus Christ in our midst. The Rosary helps us pray for people, but also to ask them with hears ready to list: “How is your spiritual journey coming along? How is your walk with Jesus Christ and his Church. Do you want to come to Adoration with me for 15 minutes, and then have some ice cream afterwards?”
The Church of St Mary has Eucharistic Adoration on Mondays, generally from 6:30pm-9:00p. And since it’s October, Respect Life Month, we will have extra time for Adoration and Confession on Friday, October 30 7:00-745pm, with Mass for the legal protection of children at 8:00pm.

Peace in Christ, Fr. Thomas McCabe
